Tea's up: The Buffaloes visit Milton Keynes Hospital to donate tea, coffee and biscuits to nurses who have had to cough up the cash for refreshments themselves

Donations to needy nurses

THE city's Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes delivered nearly £600 of goodies to the 'angels' at Milton Keynes Hospital yesterday.

The fraternity decided to make the donations after discovering the nurses have to foot the bill for their own biscuits, tea and coffee.

Dave Fitch, 57, of Milton Keynes was one of seven members of the Bletchley Park Lodge who visited the hospital to celebrate International Nurses week.

He said: "Everything went really brilliantly. The nurses seemed happy to receive our donations and we were very happy to give them.

"We were shocked to find out they were having to buy their own tea, coffee and biscuits.

"We class ourselves as philanthropists so felt it was our duty to help them out, as we would any charity.

"I'm over the moon to have helped them out, we wanted to show our support to all of the nursing staff."

Pencil sex attack on girl, 6

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE horrified parents of a six-year-old girl are refusing to send her back to school while a boy who they claim sexually assaulted her with a pencil during a game of 'doctors and nurses' is still there.

The girl was left bleeding and needed a hospital examination following the horrific attack, which allegedly happened in her own bedroom after lessons had ended.

But her parents claim the five-year-old boy and his older brother treat it all as a big joke and now taunt their daughter with crude sexual gestures in the playground.

And shortly after the attack, they said the boy arrived at the Milton Keynes primary school on a non-uniform day dressed up as a doctor with a stethoscope and wearing a badge saying 'Gynaecologist'.

The victim's mother said: "His mum seemed to think it was very funny. But my daughter has had nightmares since this happened.

"She was left mortified and keeps crying. Once she was so upset she even wet herself in the playground.

"The boy won't leave her alone at school. He tries to kiss her and her younger sister and laughs, saying 'I did bad things to you'.

"Because he is still in school she feels like she's the one being punished while he's got away with it all."

The mother claims her younger daughter has to get undressed for PE in the same room as the boy who allegedly assaulted her sister.

Her husband added: "These boys don't seem to realise how naughty this was, so there is a risk the same thing could happen to another girl.

"That means every female pupil in the school is a potential victim."

The parents have now temporarily withdrawn both their daughters from the school and asked teachers to provide them with work they can do at home until the matter is resolved. They claim the school's headteacher was unsympathetic and just shrugged off their concerns.

Due to the nature of the claims, MK NEWS is not able to name either family or identify the school for legal reasons.

The headteacher refused to comment but the governors issued a statement saying: "We received a complaint about the way the school responded to an incident involving pupils outside school hours. We take pupils' welfare extremely seriously and the chairman of the governors carried out a thorough, independent investigation. We are confident appropriate policies were followed.

"The chairman has invited the parents to school to discuss the findings and how concerns can be resolved."

£1.3m bill to keep homeless in B&Bs

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MAJOR political row broke out yesterday after it was revealed Milton Keynes Council forked out at least £1.3million to keep homeless families in B&Bs last year.

Shock new figures showed the city was one of the country's heaviest users of temporary accommodation.

And it has the worst record of anywhere outside London for the number of families with children forced to spend more than six weeks – the maximum laid down by the Government – in B&Bs. At the beginning of April, 93 of the city's 150 registered homeless were in B&Bs and hotels – most outside the city in towns like Bedford and Dunstable.

Tory leaders blamed opposition councillors for frustrating their plans to provide more rented accommodation.

But Liberal Democrat spokesman Chris Williams said the council's record on B&B accommodation was 'dismal and embarrassing'.

He added: "We aren't building enough council houses."

Labour's Nigel Long said it was 'horrendous' so many families were in B&Bs.

Andrew Pakes, Labour election candidate for MK South, added: "The council has to stop making excuses."

However councillor Peter Geary, cabinet member for communities, insisted 450 affordable homes were now being built every year.

He said the homeless problem was being tackled despite the opposition 'frustrating us every step of the way'.

He added: "There will always be homeless families but by the end of the year far fewer will be in temporary accommodation."

Olney mooners: These season-savvy sisters wrapped up with extra layers under their bras

Breast foot forward

MORE than 18,000 men and women took part in a late-night marathon on Saturday.

The MoonWalk saw volunteers strut their stuff in their bras for breast cancer.

Team of six Olney Mooners have raised £2,500. They included 34-year-old mum-of-four, Janine Gibson, who is an office manager in Milton Keynes.

She said: "It was absolutely freezing, not many of us managed to stay in our bras for the whole walk."

Milton Keynes Mental Alien Females In Action (MK MAFIA) raised £3,000 with a team of 15 women from Milton Keynes and Northampton.

Ringleader Michelle Pandit, 45, from Middleton, said: "The whole experience was very emotional. We really bonded as a team."

MK MAFIA: The 15 ladies donned space gear for charity

'Unprovoked' Bletchley attack

AN 'UNPROVOKED' assault left two men with cuts to their faces.

The victims, aged 45 and 52, were walking along Queensway in Bletchley at 7.55pm on Sunday, May 5 when the two offenders got out of a silver Mercedes C Class, which was parked nearby. They then attacked the victims.

The offenders were Asian men thought to be in their teens or early 20s and were about 5ft 8ins, with short dark hair.

The first was wearing a light blue t-shirt and jeans and possibly sunglasses and the second a purple t-shirt.

A 21-year-old man was arrested and released on bail until May 29.

Witnesses can contact PC Matt Thorn on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Police Commissioner: Anthony Stansfeld employs a chauffeur to drive him to work in an Audi car

Sack your driver cops' chief told

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE and crime commissioner Anthony Stansfeld was this week urged to sack his chauffeur – and employ another bobby on the streets of Milton Keynes instead.

Andrew Pakes, Labour candidate for MK South in the next election, accused him of a 'cynical use of taxpayers' money' when the area faces cuts to frontline policing.

Reports over the weekend claimed Mr Stansfeld paid a chauffeur £20,000 a year to ferry him to and from his office in a powerful Audi A6.

Angry Mr Pakes said: "For £19,000, the chief constable could hire an extra police community support officer and £22,000 would mean another bobby on the beat. I think Milton Keynes people would consider that a much better use of his budget."

The reports said Tory Mr Stansfeld, who earns £85,000 a year, appointed a driver despite Thames Valley Police being ordered to cut £40million from its budget over the next four years.

Mr Pakes said: "The commissioner seems to have the wrong priorities. He should be setting an example by being very frugal with taxpayers' money.

"Why should we pay for him to go to work? He earns £85,000 a year, which for most people is a mega amount of money.

"And the Tories like to claim they are the party of 'value for money'! We hardly ever see the commissioner in Milton Keynes, anyway."

A spokesman for Mr Stansfeld said the Audi was a five-year old 'high-mileage, low value' former police car, while the chauffeur was only paid £12,000 to work three days a week.

She did not comment when we asked if the money would be better spent on another bobby for Milton Keynes.

MKNEWSBRIEFS

Body found by lorry

POLICE made a grim discovery at the weekend when a man was found dead next to a lorry.

Thames Valley Police were called to Colt Holm Road, in Old Wolverton, at 5.30am on Saturday, where they found the man, in his 50s, lying next to the vehicle. Police are not treating his death as suspicious and the case has been passed to the coroner.

Ward election called

A DATE has been set for a by-election to fill the vacancy in the Bletchley and Fenny Stratford Ward.

It follows the death of Cllr Rita Venn last month.

The election will take place on Thursday, June 20 and nominations for candidates open tomorrow and close at noon on Thursday, May 23. Polling cards will be sent out from Monday.

Murder charge dropped

THREE men who were originally charged with the murder of a 24-year-old man have had their charges reviewed by the Crown Prosecution Service.

Samir Bostan, of Wolston Meadow, Middleton, has been charged with the manslaughter of Joe Kent outside Xscape, while Tariq Bostan, 26, of Sarum Road, Luton, and Hamza Noor, 22, of Ranelagh Road, Wembley, have been charged with actual bodily harm.

Mr Kent died on January 15 – one day before his 25th birthday and just six months after he got married.

The three men spoke only to confirm their names in front of a packed public gallery at Luton Crown Court on Monday. Tariq Bostan and Noor were both released on bail. No application was made for bail for Samir Bostan and he remains in custody.

They are due to appear at the same court again on May 24.

Pay up, judge tells charity

A CHARITY that tried to avoid paying business rates has been ordered to stump up more than £84,000 to Milton Keynes Council and South Cambridgeshire District Council.

The High Court ruled yesterday that the Public Safety Charitable Trust, which broadcasts crime-fighting messages and offers free wi-fi from empty commercial premises, was not exempt.

The test case, which followed conflicting decisions in magistrates' courts, was being closely watched by other councils throughout the country.

Riding a bike in MK wheely isn't that bad

ME THINKS 'grandad motorist' doth protest too much! (Letters, MK NEWS, May 8)

Yes, there are inconsiderate cyclists and as one who used to bike it to and from work until my retirement I can assure him that I witnessed quite a few of that ilk myself!

Mostly it was in winter, when some either didn't even have reflective tops or – and this was worse – never had lights. I can recall when you faced being stopped by a copper and made to walk if you were seen riding a bike without a light on.

The sheer irresponsibility of that could be shown in monetary terms. A reasonably priced bike set you back about £100; a simple set of lights cost about £25. These would make you visible in the dark quite easily.

About the redways, however well-intentioned the planners might have been, the fact is that they have dangers of their own. The location of some made pedestrians and cyclists easy targets for muggers and unless you had tyres with reinforcing liners punctures from broken glass were a constant hazard. As a result I never used the redways unless I knew that they were safe for me to do so.

As for the roads – and I mean the grid roads as well – they were rarely a hazard. It was just a case of keeping left and if you needed to change lanes or turn right, you simply signalled in good time and from my experience almost all motorists, even lorry drivers, were courteous enough to give way.

While I cannot say that it was okay 100 per cent of the time, it was nothing like as bad as suggested.

Regarding the long overdue road repairs mentioned, I did read about one public-spirited citizen who was so concerned about the potholes in his road he started filling them himself with concrete, only for some overpaid, pen-pushing jobsworth to threaten him with prosecution for fly-tipping!

Please help me to find long-lost sister Debbie

I AM looking for my sister who I last saw when she was three years old.

Her name was Debbie Allsopp and her name was probably changed to her mother's name of Debbie McMillan when apparently she moved to Milton Keynes, according to my father.

She would be about 37 now. My dad did find her but he did not tell us where she was and now he has sadly passed away and we have been searching for her ever since.

We feel she ought to know that he has passed away and we would like her to meet her family that was left behind.

She has eight brothers and sisters that she does not know and they have children and some of them have children.

As you can tell it is a large family and Debbie should at least know where she comes from.

Sandy Kerrell (nee Allsopp)
Eldest sister

Left: Debbie when she was two with her grandad and sister Pam

Cyclists do contribute

I AM writing in response to the letter from the grandad motorist.

Here we have another motorist convinced that cyclists do not 'contribute' to the construction and maintenance of roads.

Roads are funded out of general taxation.

This includes taxes such as VAT, income tax, stamp duty etc, all of which are paid by car owners and non-owners alike.

It is simply not the case that motorists are the only people who pay for the building and upkeep of our roads.

John Jefferies

Don't attack the poor

I WRITE regarding the letter 'Do not cut benefits' in last week's paper.

I am very glad to read these views and feel the attack made on the poor and disabled is horrendous.

It is not fair to make people's lives so difficult and there will be horrendous consequences for the very poor. It is most unfair of the Government to implement them.

Surely after the results of the local elections it will finally realise it needs to rethink and start listening to ordinary people.

Jon Brett's City Life

His column written exclusively for MK NEWS

Only thing I want through my door is MK NEWS

PICTURED here is just seven days worth of leaflets, menus, charity bags and other junk pushed through the letterbox of the City Life office. It drives me mad.

There's not a day goes by when the peace isn't shattered when Charlie (the City Life dog) goes nuts at the prospect of ripping another 'buy one, get one free' pizza menu from the grubby hands of a 'chef' with a day off.

And it isn't just pizza on offer – it's cuisine from around the world, if the leaflets are to be believed. But the reality is – as anyone who has driven around an industrial estate late at night in Milton Keynes can tell you – your balti is more likely to come from Bleak Hall and your pizza, not from a kiln oven, but some factory unit on Kiln Farm!

Estate agents want my house; I can get the quickest, fastest broadband; save the world with my old junk; get my oven, curtains and upholstery cleaned at 'amazing prices' and even a voucher for £55 worth of dental care.

I do love a bargain, but I find these endless leaflets, flyers and charity bags a nuisance.

And some of the charity bags look a bit iffy, with suspicious people picking up your old clothes, some of which are more likely to be destined to a carboot sale rather than Kabul helping the victims of war.

In fact, there's only room for one quality publication through my letterbox – and you're probably holding it in your hands right now!

The Chinese MK: Dr Wei Yang's designs for development in Lixian are based on Milton Keynes

Cities in China based on city

TWO cities in China will be developed using Milton Keynes as inspiration.

Wei Yang and Partners, formed in MK in 2011, has won a £500,000 contract to help design new developments in the cities of Lixian and Huarong, both of which are in the Hunan province.

"The Chinese look to create cities that offer people somewhere exciting to live and work, so the design philosophy of MK is an obvious influence," said Dr Wei Yang, who is also a trustee of the Milton Keynes City Discovery Centre.

"Chinese visitors to Milton Keynes are always impressed by the green setting and see it as a model for long-term vision."

Wei also confirmed that sadly there will be no Chinese concrete cows.

Criticised care home to close

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

DISABILITY charity Scope is to pull out of running a residential care home in the city – just seven months after a damning report from the Care Quality Commission.

The watchdog threatened possible legal action unless it improved the way medicines were 'administered' at the Milton Keynes Community Care Services.

But a charity spokesman insisted the criticism – which followed a surprise visit by CQC inspectors – had nothing to do with the decision to 'deregister' the centre in Fletchers Mews, Neath Hill.

He said it had been taken because both the residential home and the day centre were being under used.

Four of the 14 self-contained flats are empty, while the day centre only has 26 registered users with often fewer than half a dozen turning up.

However he said none of the 10 remaining residents would be evicted and efforts would be made to avoid making any of the 16 staff redundant.

Scope area manager Russell Evans said: "Fewer disabled people have been using these services which have been losing money. After a review and discussions with staff and residents, we decided to step back from managing it.

"Residents will discuss care with the local authority that funds it, then decide where they want to live and what services they receive."

A Milton Keynes Council spokesman said: "We will work closely with Scope, other local authorities and all residents to ensure they are appropriately supported to make the best choices for future care and support."

Throwback: Historians of all ages explored past hobbies and dressed in period costumes

Visitors step back in time

THE past was brought to life at an annual festival at Milton Keynes Museum at the weekend.

Re-enactors donned historical costumes at the event, which celebrated the city's past.

Visitors also had the chance to take part in a variety of medieval past times, including fencing with wooden sticks and grinding wheat to make flour.

Knife throwing ex-lover jailed

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN has been sent to prison after throwing knives at his ex-girlfriend's new boyfriend.

Karl Steers, 22, of West Street, Olney, turned up at his former girlfriend's house on December 30 last year and forced his way into the property.

He threw two knives at her new boyfriend, which missed, before fleeing the house.

Shortly after leaving the house in Northampton he was spotted driving by a police officer and led her on a chase along the A45.

His speed was recorded at 100mph before he turned off the dual carriageway.

He later damaged a stationary lorry before his car bonnet 'flew up', hit the windscreen and he came to a halt.

At Northampton Crown Court on Friday, Kevin Lynch, mitigating, said Steers had been in a six-year relationship with his former girlfriend before it ended last year.

He said: "This was his first and only serious relationship."

Judge Richard Bray said: "First on your way in you caused damage and you threw two knives at her new boyfriend, which fortunately missed."

He added: "I cannot overlook these matters.

"There has to be a custodial sentence."

He was jailed for eight months after pleading guilty to attempted ABH and dangerous driving.

He was also banned from getting behind the wheel for two years.

Theatre wins award

MILTON Keynes Theatre has been named the best attraction in the city. It received the honour at the Milton Keynes Food and Leisure Awards on Sunday, which were voted for by the public.

£78k for MK arts groups

ARTS groups in the city will get a welcome boost of cash after Milton Keynes Council won £78,600 in funding from Arts Council England.

The council led consortium includes Heritage Alliance, Festive Road, Fringe Festival, Independent Cinema, Inter-Action MK, Islamic Arts Heritage & Culture Group, and MK City Orchestra.

The group will share the money between them, which will be used to improve fundraising strategies which could ensure their future sustainability.

Jessica Rost, the artistic director of MK Festival Fringe, said: "This funding is absolutely vital. It will help us to sustain what is a growing and vibrant arts scene in Milton Keynes."

Councillor Peter Geary, cabinet member with responsibility for communities, said: "This funding will help partners strengthen their resilience and find new income strands that will help them not just survive but thrive."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

The men need a far bigger shed

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MEN In Sheds – a group that holds activities for older men – has roped in the city's MPs in a bid to move to bigger premises.

Iain Stewart and Mark Lancaster joined outgoing mayor Catriona Morris for an open day at the group's current premises in Kiln Farm.

But with more than 45 men actively attending sessions, held three times a week, the popular group wants to move to a retail unit next door that is twice the size.

The current premises are funded by Age UK Milton Keynes, which pays the £8,000 a year rent.

And the MPs gave the group their backing, with Mr Lancaster saying: "I'm going to do everything I can to make sure they get next door."

At the event on Friday the group also inducted its first female member.

Former mayor Jan Lloyd was given an honorary membership for donating equipment used by her late husband Haydn.

MK Dons fury at golliwog badge

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

CRUDELY-PAINTED golliwog badges are being sold to MK Dons football fans on eBay for just 99p.

The tiny badges are still painted in the blue and yellow colours of the old Wimbledon team.

But they carry a banner which plainly says 'M.K. Dons'.

The club – which moved to Milton Keynes from Wimbledon in 2003 and became MK Dons exactly 10 years ago – were horrified when we told them about the politically-incorrect badges.

A shocked spokesman said: "We are extremely disappointed to see the club's name associated with this particular item.

"We would like to reassure both our supporters and the general public that the item is not part of the club's official merchandise range – nor has it ever been endorsed by us or before today shown to us.

Un-PC: The badge that was bought by MK NEWS on eBay

"We will be reporting the matter to Trading Standards."

Asked what would happen if anybody turned up at stadiummk wearing one of the badges, they added: "If any item caused offence to supporters we would encourage them to report it to the nearest steward. We would then take further action as appropriate."

Before buying the badge, our reporter emailed the vendor, identified only as Steve, to ask whether it was okay to purchase such items in today's politically correct climate.

Steve replied: "As for being politically incorrect, these should be seen as football badges and nothing else, but I know what you mean."

He said the badge was new and also boasted that he had others in different football club colours.

A search showed one bearing a Stoke City banner and painted in the Premier League side's red and white colours.

Others had banners with the names of Barnet, Halifax Town and Torquay United.

Kick it Out, the organisation dedicated to rooting racism out of football, has condemned the badges.

Kicked off bus due to 'odd' £1

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A BEMUSED student was kicked off a bus by a grumpy driver – because he thought his £1 coin looked 'odd'.

Graham Findlay, 19, had caught the Arriva bus from opposite The Point in Midsummer Boulevard on his way to see a friend in Newport Pagnell when the incident happened.

"I have never had any problems with Arriva before," he told MK NEWS.

"I think the driver must have been in a bad mood because he was having a go at a kid in front of me for bringing a bottle of drink on."

As Graham handed over his £1 coin, he was shocked when the driver told him that he didn't recognise it and that he would have to get off.

"I was just confused," said Graham, who tweeted his dissatisfaction to Arriva.

"I didn't really think it would be a problem."

Even more puzzling for Graham was the fact he had been given the coin as change from an earlier journey by another Arriva bus driver.

Puzzled: Graham Findlay with the £1 coin, minted in 1989, that saw him kicked off an Arriva bus

When he confronted staff at the Arriva hub in the city centre following the incident on May 1, they admitted there was nothing wrong with it.

A spokesman for Arriva said: "We have not had any contact from Mr Findlay directly to our customer service team but we would agree, from the photo, that the £1 coin looks genuine.

"Our drivers are responsible for the money they take and do have the right to query any coin or note if they feel it does not look real.

"If we are advised of the time and date of the journey we can advise our driver that this was a genuine coin. In the meantime we would like to apologise to Mr Findlay for any inconvenience caused."

Working to prevent underage gambling

Council crackdown ahead of new casino arriving in Milton Keynes

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

Failed: Premises in MK allowed underage gambling to take place

AN INVESTIGATION into gambling premises in the city discovered half of them were failing to stop those who are underage taking part.

The 10 premises – which included betting shops and arcades – were visited by Milton Keynes Council's regulatory unit, which worked with the Gaming Commission and 16-year-old volunteers.

Three premises fell foul of the law by allowing the volunteers to place bets, while the remaining two allowed the under-age teens to enter and remain inside the premises without their age or identification being checked.

Karen Ford, head of the regulatory unit, said: "This was a disappointing result for the businesses involved but they have all made a commitment to improve staff training and to implement measures such as self testing and the sharing of good practice.

"We will continue to monitor these and others to ensure the safety of children and young persons in Milton Keynes."

With the opening of the new Aspers Casino in the city later this year, officers have begun a rolling program of test purchases on gaming premises.

Nigel Hartland, general manager for Aspers Casino, said: "As a group we take our responsibilities to our local communities very seriously.

"We operate a challenge 21 policy and anyone who appears under the age of 21 is required to produce photographic identification in order to gain entry."

Getting rid of rubbish

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A GROUP of volunteers showed how much they Love MK when they gave up their Saturday morning for a litter pick.

And they were joined by MP Iain Stewart to pick up more than 20 bags of litter around the Westcroft area.

The initiative was organised by McDonald's Westcroft, Shenley Brook End Parish Council and ward councillors Edith Bald and Gerald Small.

Mr Stewart said: "The high turnout and diverse age range of volunteers clearly shows that everyone Loves MK.

"It was a productive morning and I was pleased with how people mucked in to keep their community clean."

The Milton Keynes South MP also backed the Love MK campaign.

Launched last week by MK NEWS, it aims to celebrate all the achievements from around our city.

He said: "The Love MK campaign by MK NEWS is an excellent initiative. It promotes all that is great about MK on the national and international stage."

Litter pickers: Cllr Gerald Small, resident Ram Morla, Iain Stewart MP and Cllr Edith Bald with the rubbish

MPs get behind our Love MK campaign

LAST week we launched our Love MK campaign and now we have the backing of our two MPs.

Mark Lancaster and Iain Stewart have both thrown their weight behind us in our bid to support our community and shout about all the good things that are taking place in our great city.

Each week we will be stamping our Love MK logo on our favourite 'good news' stories.

Mark Lancaster said: "When people move to Milton Keynes they never seem to want to leave.

"MK NEWS' Love MK tag is a great way to highlight why our city is such a great place to live and why it evokes such loyalty from everyone."

Village boozer is one of the best in Britain

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

ONE of the area's best-loved boozers has just been named among Britain's top 150 pubs by the Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA).

And tomorrow The Lamb in Stoke Goldington will also be crowned Pub of the Year by CAMRA's Milton Keynes and North Buckinghamshire branch.

Chairman Phil Swinbank said: "It's a lovely pub and there's never a bad pint.

"When it comes to good beer, Steve and Rachel Porritt, who run it, are always on their game.

"We're putting forward 13 local pubs for inclusion in next year's CAMRA's Good Beer Guide – and the Lamb is the cream of the crop."

Landlady Rachel, who took over the free house 13 years ago with Steve, said: "We're delighted to win again – the last time was in 2008.

"Of course it's hard work running a pub, but we do like our beer and always have four or five real ales on tap."

Because it is a free house, the couple prefer to get their beer from small breweries like Tring and Oakham rather than the big boys like Charles Wells and Greene King.

As well as a traditional Northampton skittles table, the pub also has the distinction of being the only one in the country always to have Tring Brewery's notorious Death or Glory on tap.

It's a dark bitter that at 7.5 per cent really separates the men from the boys. Rachel said: "It's a very popular drink with some of our regulars. But at that strength you have to be careful!"

The Lamb also serves up homemade pies and local seasonal produce.

But Rachel added: "We don't claim to be a restaurant and nor do we try to be some sort of fancy gastropub.

"What we are primarily is a local village pub that just happens to serve home-cooked good food as well."

Cheers: From left, Steve and Rachel Porritt and assistant manager Simon Crichton raise a glass outside The Lamb

Pair put in jail after burglary

BY JAMES AVERILL

Caged: Robert Wery, left, and Dean Holland

TWO men have been sent to prison after burgling a house in broad daylight.

Robert Wery, 25, of Strauss Grove, Browns Wood, and Dean Holland, 25, of Florin Close, Pennyland, both pleaded guilty to burglary and possession of a class A drug.

On Friday they were sentenced at Aylesbury Crown Court to 30 months imprisonment for burglary and six months for possession of a class A drug. The sentences will run concurrently.

The burglary happened at an address in Tavelhurst, Two Mile Ash, on March 5.

During the incident, one of the occupants returned home to find the two defendants running out of the house with items they had stolen.

When the men were arrested later the same day, they were also charged for possession of a class A drug.

Investigating officer, PC James Day said: "I welcome the sentence imposed upon Wery and Holland, who committed this burglary in broad daylight.

"I hope the sentence sends out a clear message that Thames Valley Police and the courts take burglary offences very seriously and will always aim to bring offenders to justice."

■ Meanwhile, Thames Valley Police are appealing for witnesses after an attempted burglary in Olney.

Between 4.25am on Saturday, May 4 and 10am on Monday May 6, offenders tried to get into a property in St Josephs Close by forcing open a ground floor side window. Anyone with information should call police on 101, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Cash award for top good cause in city

BY ANNABEL HOWARD
editor@mk-news.co.uk

GOOD causes in the area are being offered the chance to receive £500 after MK NEWS teamed up with housebuilder Taylor Wimpey.

Readers are being asked to nominate worthy causes in Milton Keynes that they feel are the most deserving of the cash.

It could be a charity which relies heavily on donations to keep up its good work in the community, or an organisation that makes a real difference to where you live.

We are accepting nominations for the Community Chest until noon on Wednesday, May 22.

A shortlist of the most deserving causes will then be printed in the paper before the public are invited to vote for their favourite. The group which receives the most votes will receive £500.

Christine Scarborough, sales and marketing director for Taylor Wimpey North Thames, which is building new homes at Oakbrook, Newton Leys, said: "We are delighted to be teaming up with MK NEWS to offer readers the chance to nominate their favourite local cause."

MK NEWS editor, Cally Jenkins, added: "This is a great opportunity to show your appreciation for good causes in the area."

Floating animals at town carnival

On the march: Youngsters show off their colourful costumes at a previous carnival

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE organisers of West Bletchley Carnival have revealed the details of this year's event.

And top secret plans involving spectacular floating animals will entertain carnival goers.

West Bletchley Council has announced the animal antics will take centre stage at the event on June 8, which is being supported by MK NEWS.

The council has teamed up with Julia Charles, a winner on BBC's Dragons Den, and the MK play rangers to organise the showpiece.

The play rangers, an initiative launched by Milton Keynes Council, have been working with several primary schools to help design costumes for the carnival.

Mrs Charles, involved through her own event management company, said: "We are extremely excited, honoured and humbled to be a part of such a great occasion in our home town.

"Year after year the carnival has set the standard for the festival scene in Milton Keynes.

"We are extremely excited to be a part of raising the bar even higher.

"This is going to be the event of the year.

"Not only will we have some of the craziest acts on the ground but we are going to be taking over the skies as well with our floating animals."

The celebrations will start with Zumba and entertainment at Melrose from 10am, with the parade leaving two hours later.

The fun will continue, once the procession arrives in Rickley Park, until 5pm. There will also be up to 100 stalls, live music, a fairground and lots of other activities for children and adults to enjoy.

There are still some stall spaces available. Call 01908 648257 to book your space.

New book tells history of town

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A 70-YEAR-OLD who was born and grew up in Wolverton has written a book about the history of the town.

Bryan Dunleavy has spent the last three years carrying out research for the book, called Manno's Manor, using surviving records going back more than 1,000 years and recent archaeological findings to tell the town's story.

The book's title comes from Manno le Breton, one of William the Conqueror's followers who made Wolverton the head of his barony.

The book stops at 1838 as Bryan is planning a second volume.

"There was simply too much to put in one book. It's a good place to stop," he said.

Bryan says the book will appeal most to those who have a close connection with Wolverton.

"The reaction has been good. I've had people write to tell me how much they enjoyed it so it has served a purpose and hopefully it will be around for the next generation for many years to come," he added.

History man: Bryan Dunleavy spent years researching his book

"It's not a blockbuster, but it's hopefully well written and well researched."

Despite not living in Wolverton since 1967, Bryan was inspired to write the book after passing through on a visit to Huntingdon.

"I was on my way up from my home near Southampton and thought I would pass through," he said.

"It had changed so much and it inspired me to find out more."

Bryan will be launching and signing copies of the book at the Ague UK Bookshop in Stratford Road, Wolverton, on Saturday at 10am.

Staff enter new era at Oakgrove

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

STAFF at a supermarket with more than 440 years of service between them celebrated a new era as a store opened in the city.

The Mayor of Milton Keynes, Catriona Morris, officially opened a new Waitrose store in Oakgrove on Thursday and was joined by 14 members of staff who have worked for the company since it first arrived in the city.

Waitrose has traded in Milton Keynes since 1979 and has relocated from its Midsummer Boulevard site as its lease was coming to an end.

The new store is more than twice the size of the previous one and features a customer café and service counters staffed by product specialists. All 169 'partners' working at the Midsummer Boulevard shop transferred to the new store and have been joined by 65 new staff. They will all become partners in the John Lewis Partnership.

Cllr Morris said: "The new Waitrose looks very exciting and I'm delighted to officially open it. Waitrose has been in Milton Keynes for more than 30 years and its new shop represents a major investment here, which will be a great boost to shoppers and residents."

Branch manager Paul Taylor added: "We are excited to be building on more than 30 years trading in MK with a fantastic new shop at the heart of the new Oakgrove community.

"Our team has a lot of experience and we've been joined by enthusiastic new members and I'm looking forward to combining that expertise with the latest Waitrose offer to bring customers something special."

Minister shown 'way forward'

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A SENIOR Government minister was shown around a new housing estate that has been earmarked as 'the way forward' for development.

Financial Secretary to the Treasury, Greg Clark MP, was given a full tour of Brooklands in Milton Keynes to see just what is being achieved in the city despite the difficult economic climate.

He was brought to see the multi award-winning scheme by city MP Mark Lancaster as part of Milton Keynes' bid for a government initiative called City Deals.

This would see a deal struck with the Government that would help Milton Keynes sustain its local economic development and housing growth.

The MP for Mitlon Keynes North decided to show the minister around Brooklands because its infrastructure was completed first to provide an attractive setting for new homes.

Simon Elcock, from Places for People, which is building Brooklands, said: "It's always very encouraging when senior political figures like the minister are brought to our development as an example of good practice. We would like to think this shows that Brooklands is at the forefront of modern development and placemaking."

Places for People was recently voted Housebuilder of the Year in the prestigious Building Magazine Awards.

Mr Lancaster said: "It was great to have the Minister for Cities join us in Milton Keynes and to show him round the fantastic Brooklands site. He was particularly impressed with Milton Keynes' mantra of infrastructure before expansion and I was pleased to be able to show him an area where it had been put into practice so well."

LOCAL ENTREPRENEUR GIVES BACK

Advertorial

Liam Sharp

A local business man from Oldbrook just keeps giving more and more back to the community. Since 2011, 27 year old, Liam Sharp's online Sports Nutrition company (bodysharpfitstore.com) supplies fitness people all over the UK with Supplements from the worlds leading brands and earlier this year he launched BODY-SHARP Nutrition, his very own range of Sports Supplements. Yet he still sees Milton Keynes as the heart of his Business.

When Liam first set up bodysharpfitstore.com in 2011 he introduced "Same Day Delivery" for local customers in the Milton Keynes area. Then at the end of 2012 he decided that he and his company wanted to do more for our great City. So Team BODY-SHARP would spend the next 12 months raising money for Willen Hospice. A charity close to the hearts of many of us in MK. With the help of his team, friends and family, taking part in everything from 10k runs to half marathons to the Tough Mudder Challenge. They have so far, just 6 months in, managed to raise nearly £2,000. On top of that bodysharpfitstore.com is going to donate 10p to the Hospice for every single item it sells over the 12 months. Now, well into 2013, Liam has just come to an agreement with Kiss Gym in Knowhill, Milton Keynes, that all Kiss members can now get additional discounts on everything at bodysharpfitstore.com.

Liam said - "BODY-SHARP Fit Store was born in Milton Keynes, during a time when people were reluctant to spend. Fuel and food prices were going up and everyone was cutting back. If it wasn't for our loyal, local customers in Milton Keynes, we wouldn't be here now"

DEPARTMENT FOR EDUCATION IDENTIFIES SITE FOR NEW COLLEGE

Wootton Academy Trust's directors are pleased to announce that the Department for Education has identified the location for Kimberley College, its new Sixth Form STEMi College. The building identified is in Stewartby and was originally commissioned by Hanson UK as its new Headquarters but was never occupied..

Kimberley College will occupy this iconic building which has won several prestigious architectural prizes for innovative design. It will provide an amazing environment for students to study before moving on to university or into higher level apprenticeships.
Stewartby also offers good public transport links with Bedford and Kempston as well as places further afield.
There is tremendous excitement about the new college as the Trust is redefining approaches to teaching and learning to make these fit for twenty-first century learners. It is working closely with employers and universities to enable students not only to get excellent academic results, but also to acquire real practical skills which employers need.
The Trust is similarly redefining approaches to teaching and learning in the Arts at Wootton Sixth Form College, the other Sixth Form College it operates.
The Directors are also delighted to announce two new senior staffing appointments: Mr Tony Withell is set to become Senior Principal of Wootton Academy Trust in overall charge of Wootton College and Kimberley College, and Mr Michael Gleeson has been appointed Principal of Kimberley College, whilst retaining a senior role at Wootton.
Both Mr Withell and Mr Gleeson have a great deal of experience in working for Wootton Academy Trust; Mr Withell as Head of Wootton Upper School for the last fourteen years, and Mr Gleeson as Deputy Head. Together they intend to ensure the colleges secure even higher outcomes for students than the excellent ones Wootton Upper School students currently achieve. The two colleges will complement each other; with Wootton specialising in the arts and Kimberley in STEM

Great Gatsby

HAVING come to Milton Keynes Theatre as a stage production just weeks ago, you can keep up with the Great Gatsby fever by heading along to your nearest cinema for this week's big movie.

With a star-studded cast that includes Leonardo DiCaprio, Carey Mulligan, Tobey Maguire and Joel Edgerton, this latest film adaptation of the classic novel is directed and produced by Baz Luhrmann, who worked with DiCaprio on Romeo + Juliet.

F. Scott Fitzgerald's Long-Island set novel has now been adapted as a movie five times. With a budget of $127million, this is by far the most ambitious, but we'll let you be the judge as to whether that pays off!

As always, the film is set in 1920s New York and all the riches that it brings. DiCaprio stars as the very rich Jay Gatsby, an enigmatic figure who stages flamboyant and extravagent parties for the elite.

But when bond broker Nick (Maguire) moves in next door and begins to find out more about his mysterious neighbour, Gatsby's past comes back to the fore, with Nick's cousin Daisy (Mulligan) very much involved.

WOBURN Safari Park ranger Bob Streatfeild writes an exclusive column for MK LIFE. In this month's edition, he talks about some exciting new arrivals

THIS month has been full of excitement at the park as we have an influx of new babies being born.

A Barbary macaque, Blondie, has become a mother again and her baby joins the troop in the Monkey Jungle this spring.

Born in the Monkey Jungle reserve of the road safari, the baby monkey is the first of several that keepers expect each year from the troop living in the 14-acre drive-through.

As soon as the little one is born it clings on to its mother's fur and will happily hang from her underbelly while she moves around.

This isn't Blondie's first infant and the father, Berlinger, will be taking an active part in raising the baby.

The Savannah Grasslands reserve has also seen the arrival of two Eland antelope calves. Both newborn calves were fathered by the breeding male of the Woburn herd; three-year-old King Thistle who only arrived last year.

Keepers are delighted as these are also the first Eland calves born here at Woburn Safari Park.

The female calves have been given a full tour of the reserve and have met all the other species; these include rhino, dwarf forest buffalo, ostrich and in particular the wildebeest, which have taken a special interest in the calves and can occasionally be seen guarding them as the infants feed.

Come along to the park and see them for yourself!

VIA THE PENNINES TO YORK & DURHAM

DIRECT FROM: MILTON KEYNES, NORTHAMPTON, RUGBY, COVENTRY, BEDWORTH, NUNEATON, TAMWORTH, LICHFIELD T.V, RUGELEY T.V & STOKE ON TRENT

We run right across the Pennines via the steeply graded Diggle and Standedge route past Huddersfield before cutting East through Yorkshire and eventually on to our popular destinations. In York there is a wide selection of pubs, restaurants and shopping (including the famous 'Shambles'). Within the city walls there is abundant evidence of Roman, Viking and Medieval history, mixed with classic architecture from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries. The majestic York Minster towers above the city. You can appreciate the wealth of archaeological relics at the Jorvik Viking Centre in Coppergate. You may also wish to visit the castle, one of a number of medieval churches, take a sightseeing tour or stop off at the National Railway Museum. Alternatively stay on the train for a little longer and break in Durham, home to some of the finest buildings in England including its UNESCO listed cathedral and a castle.

THIS musical duo have developed a strong reputation of fantastic live performances.

Once known mainly for their instrumental skills with Scottish smallpipes, the accordion and Swedish nyckelharpa, Vicki Swan and Jonny Dyer are now being accepted as impressive song arrangers and writers.

Vicki and Jonny effortlessly blend traditional material with contemporary interpretations while equally creating original self-penned tunes and songs that are entirely at home in the tradition.

Out of this combination they have developed a sound that is both familiar and fresh.

Strong believers in letting the music tradition live and breathe through sensitive interpretation, they allow the melody to sing without any constraints.

Following in her father's footsteps, Vicki is a second generation piper.

She has returned to her Swedish roots with the addition of the Swedish nyckelharpa, Swedish bagpipes and the translating of Swedish ballads.

Jonny, meanwhile, is guitarist with incredible technical ability. He also dabbles in playing the accordion and the corn whistle.

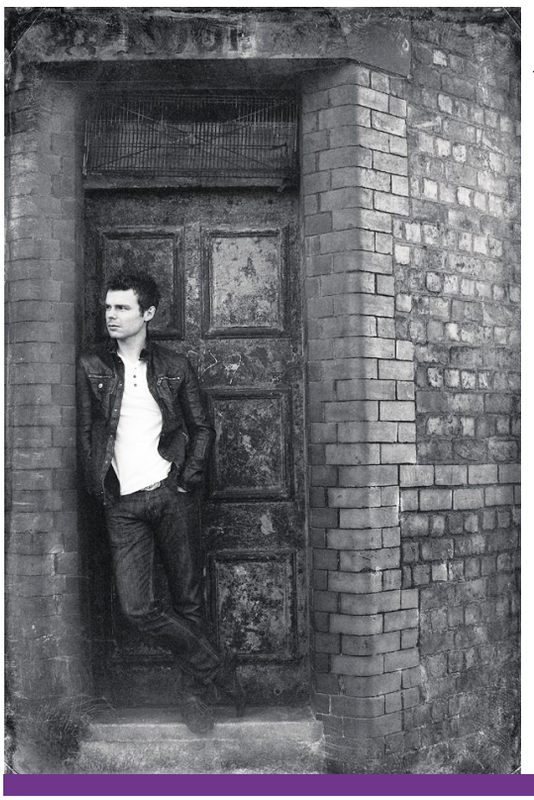
What is for sure is that there will be plenty of instruments on display, all being played expertly by this delightful duo.

Just make a date in your diary to stop by and watch them doing what they do best, entertaining you.

Vicki Swan and Jonny Dyer will be performing at the Song Loft, based at the Cock Hotel in Stony Stratford.

Friday's gig starts at 8.15pm and entry on the door costs £7.

According to the pair, the smiles come free with each performance!



soulfulsongs

STEPHEN Langstaff is a rising talent in the UK singer-songwriter genre.

This is Stephen's first headline show in Milton Keynes, but he has played here before having been invited back to the city following his performance at last year's MK International Festival.

A soulful singer who bares his emotions, Stephen has been compared to Jeff Buckley with his powerful self-penned songs.

One such track, Smile, has already had airplay on BBC Radio 2, a sure sign that he is rising onto a much bigger scene.

Stephen also has plenty of pedigree, having toured the UK as an opening act for The Lightning Seeds and racking up appearances at Latitude, Greenbelt and The Wicker Man festivals.

He plays at The Stables at 8.45pm on Sunday. Tickets cost £10 in advance and £12 on the door.

They can be bought by visiting www.stables.org, or calling the box office on 01908 280800.

Taylors takes part in National Open House Weekend

Perfect time to sell with excellent mortgage products now available.

Following the success of previous campaigns, leading local estate agency Taylors in Milton Keynes is taking part in what is expected to be one of the UK's largest ever Open House Weekends on Saturday 18th and Sunday 19th May.

Throughout the National Open House Weekend, sellers of properties marketed by Taylors will join thousands of other sellers across the UK and open their doors to prospective buyers.

The advantage of the National Open House Weekend is that it is time-saving and more convenient for all parties involved. The timing allows sellers and buyers to organise multiple viewings over the Saturday and Sunday, rather than trying to cram viewings into their busy weekday lifestyles.

To support the national event, property and mortgage experts will be available to offer specialist advice for all local buyers, sellers, investors and homeowners. With buyers and sellers showing signs of being more optimistic about the housing market and lenders offering more competitive mortgage rates, some would say that now is a good time to buy. Taylors is currently offering a range of competitive mortgages, including 95 per cent loan-to-value and Stamp Duty paid mortgage products to help people move home or get on the housing ladder.

Ajay Adia, Branch manager, Taylors estate agents comments: "Our sellers are really excited to be taking part in the National Open House Weekend as it's been a huge success in previous years and is widely recognised as a great opportunity to match sellers and prospective buyers.

"We're anticipating a significant amount of interest in the properties we currently have for sale, especially in the area of Milton Keynes where we've seen a high demand from buyers.

"So whether you're a buyer hoping to find your ideal property in the National Open House Weekend, or would just like some advice on purchasing or selling property, contact your local branch and we'll be happy to help."

All properties taking part in the Open House Weekend are listed on: www.propertywide.co.uk

Those interested in viewing a property can call Taylors on 01908 312623 to agree a time for viewings.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (PARTS OF SOUTH TERRACE, AND FOOTWAY AND BUS BAYS AT BLETCHLEY BUS STATION, BLETCHLEY) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes intends, in not less than 7 days from the date of this Notice, to make an order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 because works are to be carried out to part of the road and footway at Bletchley Bus Station and South Terrace, Bletchley, Milton Keynes. It is anticipated that the temporary closures will be in effect between 27 May 2013 and 5 June 2013 for 24 hours every day whilst the works are carried out.

The effect of the order will be to temporarily prohibit all access to and along the following:-

1. The carriageway of Bays 1 and 2 at Bletchley Bus Station. There is no alternative route.
2. That part of South Terrace, Bletchley, from its junction with the V7 Saxon Street to the entrance to the car park situated on the northern side of South Terrace. The parking bays along the affected part of South Terrace will be temporarily suspended for the duration of the closure.
   Whilst South Terrace is closed, the alternative route will be via Saxon Street, Duncombe Street, Osborne Street, Oliver Road, Findlay Way, Brooklands Road, Queensway, Albert Street and South Terrace.
3. That part of footway along the south-western part of South Terrace from a point approximately 9 metres south-west of the entrance to Albert Street North Car Park, continuing for a distance of approximately 15 metres in a south-easterly direction.
4. That part of footway at Bletchley Bus Station, from its junction with South Terrace, continuing for a distance of approximately 15 metres in a south-easterly direction.
   Whilst the above lengths of footway are closed the alternative route will be via the footway which runs adjacent to the western side of Albert Street North Car Park (and vice versa).

Each closure and its alternative route (if applicable) will be clearly signed in accordance with Chapter 8 of the Traffic Signs Manual.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of the order other than for emergency services and military vehicles being driven on operational duties.

The temporary restrictions will be in force on the dates shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs, and these will be displayed in the affected areas a few days in advance.

The order will come into operation on 27 May 2013 and will continue in force for a period of up to a maximum of 18 months or until the works are complete, whichever is the earlier. If the works are not completed within the period stated, a further order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

Martin's prepared to battle for the jersey

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

DAVID Martin has vowed to regain the number one jersey at MK Dons after pledging his future to the club.

The 27-year-old stopper, who has signed a new contract at stadiummk, faces a selection battle with usual understudy Ian McLoughlin after a double injury blow ruled him out for the last part of the season just gone.

Martin had to leave the field with a back injury during the 1-1 draw at Carlisle United in February and did not appear again, missing out on 15 matches as Dons tried and failed to seal promotion from League One.

He picked up an additional rib injury which delayed his recovery and in his absence Republic of Ireland U21 keeper McLoughlin has impressed, keeping nine clean sheets in those 15 games which he deputised in.

"It was disappointing for me to miss those games last year but it's made me even hungrier to get back and be the number one again," said Martin, who has signed a new two year deal.

"You always want to be number one, and whatever I do I want to be number one, so it's going to be interesting next season."

McLoughlin's time on the pitch was the first run of games he had been given in Karl Robinson's side since he signed for the club on a free transfer in the summer of 2011, after leaving Ipswich Town.

The 21-year-old is also mulling over a new Dons contract and has won the affections of many fans for his displays, picking up the MK NEWS player of the month prize in March.

He also spent a successful loan spell at Dons' League One rivals Walsall and has proven that he is capable of performing at that level.

Before signing his new deal, it is likely that he will seek assurances that he is in Robinson's thoughts as a potential number one next season, and his manager appears to have given him that incentive while still praising the contribution of Martin.

"Ian McLoughlin has come in over the past few months and done a wonderful job," said Robinson.

"We're going to offer Ian a contract as well and hopefully the two of them can fight for a place next year.

"Over the past three years he has matured into one of the best goalkeepers in the league, his first touch is fantastic, his shot-stopping is excellent.

"David is a wonderful asset to this club, as on top of what he offers on the pitch he is also an excellent ambassador in the city."

Despite the increased competition for places, usual ever present Martin said signing on again was an easy decision for him to make.

"I've got to use that hunger now to come back for pre-season and I can't wait to start," he said.

"It just wasn't meant to be last year.

"Obviously injuring my back and then coming back but then injuring my rib, it was just one of those things."

Dons confirm third Ireland adventure

DONS will spend time in the Republic of Ireland for the third pre-season in a row as they again prepare for another crack at reaching the Championship.

The club will play three games in three days as part of a week-long training camp in Dublin in July.

Manager Karl Robinson said that heading over the water gave the club pre-season preparations that they know they can trust.

"For a manager your fear is the standard of pitches, the hotel, the food, the weather and the standard of competition you might face but we know where we are at when we go to Dublin," Robinson told the club website.

"We're very comfortable in the surroundings, we've identified a great hotel and the training facilities are fantastic.

"We'll train again on the beach, the training ground we use is excellent and the gym is one of the best we will use all season.

"Millwall, Ipswich and Wolves have all been there and if it's good enough for Real Madrid, who were there a few seasons ago, it is certainly good enough for us.

"It's a time when the players will be very fatigued so they need to be sleeping and recovering as much as they can so this way they don't have to drive into work and home, they don't have to run around after their kids, they can just concentrate on training and getting fit.

"It trains the brain, it trains the heart and they become trained into the mentality that we want so they return to Milton Keynes fitter and more focused. It is important that they are fit for the season ahead but equally that they are mentally prepared for the fight of the forthcoming season."

The Dons squad will reconvene at stadiummk next month to undergo a number of fitness tests before they head out to Dublin.

Fitness will also play a big part of their time in Ireland, with fitness coach Damien Doyle, pictured, charged with putting the players through their paces.

Each day will include three-sessions designed to improve their fitness with work on the pitch and further strength and conditioning work in the gym.

The matches will be played between July 8 and July 10. Last year, Dons saw off part-timers St James' Gate and Whitehall Rangers as they began their pre-season work.

SWIMMING

THE City of Milton Keynes club took a large team to the South East Region championships which were held in Crawley and Guildford.

Ben Flaherty won the individual medley over both 200m and 400m and Jocelyn Ulyett was successful in four events, the 100m freestyle and the 50, 100 and 200m breaststroke.

Ulyett broke three county records on the way and Charlotte Evans did the same in all three backstroke events, winning the title over 200m.

There were also medals for Tom Flaherty (2) Isobel Jones (3) Emma Joyce (2), Tash Pike (1) and Christian Revell (1).

Finalists were Chris Lock, Rory Dougall, Courtney Dos Santos, Emily Jones, Rebecca Marshall and Eden Turin. Lucy Chenery had a strong weekend with five golds in multi-disability events.

She has just returned from the British International Disability Championships in Sheffield where she made four finals.

Meanwhile, the club's relay teams were in action as the regionals act as the qualification tournament for the National Championships later in the year.

The women's medley team won their event and their B team also looks to have qualified with places yet to be officially confirmed.

In the 4x100m and 4x200m women's freestyle the CMK A team finished second and should be joined by the 4x100m B team at nationals.

For the men, CMK finished third in both the 4x200m and the Medley team. The 4x100m freestyle team also should make qualification meaning a total of eight teams, qualifying over six events, is predicted.

ATHLETICS

MILTON Keynes Athletic Club enjoyed some good results at the British Universities Championships in Bedford.

Thomas Green took the title in the seated discus with an effort of 15.55m while other athletes can also be pleased with their performances.

Tom Comerford qualified for the 3000m steeplechase final and improved his heat time to 9m 55.67s to come home 12th.

There were two final appearances for Devon Byrne who was eighth in the shot final after registering 10.67m, and 10th in the javelin after a throw of 33.69m.

Chuko Cribb cleared 13.65m for seventh place in the triple jump qualifier but did not make the final.

Meanwhile, the club's Southern Men's league team competed for the first time in the Division One North, a much tougher level than they had previously experienced.

They fought to a hard earned fourth place, with Michael Cox and Freddie Curtis both winning their categories in the javelin.

The only track success came in the 400m as Ben Sturgess (M23) won in 49.1s.

At the first race of the East Midlands Grand Prix, the club's veteran women were first with third place finishes for the senior women and veteran men. A fine individual run from Jane Ovington saw her take the second female spot in her first outing since returning from a year-long injury.

Matt Clarke secured the title at the Great Weston 5 in 28m, 18s and over the unusual distance of 11k in St Bazeille, France, Ian Russell finished 29th as the second M60 in 44m, 48s.

TENNIS

NEWPORT Pagnell youngster Michael Shaw was put through his paces at a Lawn Tennis Association (LTA) National Talent ID Day.

The 14-year-old competed at the National Tennis Centre in Roehampton and was assessed in front of judges who are aiming to unearth potential stars of the future.

Shaw trains at David Lloyd Milton Keynes and was one of 39 youngsters from across the country who was invited to the capital.

"It is nice to be able to see how other people are doing and compare yourself to make sure you are on the right track," said Shaw. "I usually do pretty well at the physical stuff."

The day was overseen by LTA Head of Talent Management Andrew Lewandowski.

"Michael has performed really well and shown lots of ability across a number of different tasks designed to test athletic ability, coordination, speed and agility, as well as a real natural talent and love for the sport," he said.

"It was fantastic to see so many enthusiastic and talented players give it their all."

CRICKET

THE Cherwell League began its season this weekend but the rain frustrated Great Brickhill in Division One.

Michael Baker was unbeaten on 41 and Patrick Prassad was 39 not out as GB reached 85/0 after 20 overs against Oxford Downs, but rain then forced an early abandonment.

In Division Two, Bletchley Town's clash with Oxford and Bletchingdon Nondescripts was also rained off after Bletchley had used 16 overs to reach 37/1.

There was success in the same league for Wolverton Town (70/1) though, who made short work of Challow and Childrey (69 all out) with a nine wicket win.

Idrees Butt was in sparkling form for Wolverton, helping himself to superb figures of 7/24 in the rout.

In the Northamptonshire Cricket League Premier, Stony Stratford's (55/3) match at Horton House (161/8) was also frustratingly abandoned as Stony looked well poised for victory.

Elliott Ruff struck a fine unbeaten 100 as Horton batted first, but Stony's chase was cut short after 16 overs with Jarrod Pretorius unbeaten on 32.

There were abandonments across the Four Counties League too, with Milton Keynes CC left on 87/5 when their game with MK City in Division One was ended early due to the weather.

Newport Pagnell were 49/3 when chasing Cranfield University's 147 all out, Olney Town did not bat against Elstow who reached 36/1 and New City MK were also only in the field as Thurleigh reached 55/1.

The only match to be completed saw North Crawley (109/2) beat Eaton Bray by eight wickets.

Other divisions also saw a host of games which didn't last the distance, but Open University (138/2) got their game finished in Division Three as they beaten Tring Park (136 all out) by eight wickets.

Basil Lall hit 60 in OU's successful chase, with Alex Gray making 48 not out.

BASEBALL

MK BUCKS continued their undefeated start to the season with a double header victory over Leicester Blue Sox on Sunday.

They battled through for a 11-7 win in game one which was achieved after a fine late rally, before winning 24-14 second time around in a game strewn with errors.

The results moves Bucks level with league leaders Nottingham Rebels, who are also undefeated after their games in the AAA Midlands Division.

It is the Rebels who the Bucks face next in what could be a key clash in the race for the league title, at Woughton on the Green on May 26.

Meanwhile, MK Coyotes were beaten 36-18 by Essex Archers after seven innings, despite racking up ten hits and 16 runs during the game.

The game was ended early using a mercy rule and they must now look forward to hosting the Herts Raptors this weekend.

ROLLER HOCKEY

THERE was promotion joy for MK based side South East Steamrollers who are going up to Inline GB's Division One.

They sealed their success with two victories in Division Two this weekend, a 17-0 demolition of Crowthorne and a 14-5 win against Bomb Squad.

Now they will be aiming to secure the league title with the team, who are top of the table, locked on the same points as second placed Kingston Street Flyers.

Both sides have won 13 games and lost one from their 14 matches so far.

Meanwhile, fellow city side MK Steamrollers are also looking for a promotion spot in Division 3, and they currently occupy a berth in second place.

They have a big game against third place rivals Swindon in June, but slipping from second would still mean a play-off spot.

Red Bulls are off the pace in Spain

OFF THE PACE: Sebastian Vettel in Spain

RED Bull Racing were left frustrated by pace issues after both drivers failed to reach the podium at the Spanish Grand Prix this weekend.

Defending world champion Sebastian Vettel was fourth with team mate Mark Webber fifth after a race which team principal Christian Horner described as 'tough'.

Vettel still leads the drivers' standings by four points ahead of Kimi Raikkonen of Lotus and the Tilbrook team have a 14 point gap over Ferrari in the constructors' race, but there are clear concerns after the performance in Barcelona.

Tyre preservation was key at the Circuit de Cataluyna – a contentious issue for Red Bull and engine supplier Renault, who are high profile critics of the Pirelli rubber being used this season.

Owner Dietrich Mateschitz this week criticised the tryes for their lack of durability and the team feel that this was a key reason for their issues in Spain.

"The first three cars were a little bit too fast for us," said Vettel. "Regarding looking after the tyres, they did a better job.

"We need to catch up; we're not going the pace of the car, we're going the pace of the tyres and obviously we do something to make the tyres wear more."

Fernando Alonso won his home race for Ferrari ahead of Raikkonen and the second Ferrari of Felipe Massa.

"We were struggling for the range and a bit of pace," said Webber. "The Ferraris and the Lotus were in a bit of a different league and that made it hard for us to compete.

"We were always a little bit on the back foot in terms of tyre wear and ultimately pace.

"If you don't have the pace, then you can't have the magic strategy.

"I was happy with how I drove and we got some points, but it wasn't the result we wanted."

Horner admitted that fourth and fifth places 'were not the target' going into the race.

"The way it panned out it was obvious that tyre degradation was going to be a key factor," he said. "We didn't quite have the pace today but we still managed to score some strong points.

"We made four pit-stops with both cars, saw some great work in the pit lane and recorded a succession of very fast stops."

The season continues in Monaco on May 26.

"It is difficult to be aggressive as you have to manage tyre wear throughout the race," said Renault's Thierry Salvi.

BADMINTON

England confirm world squad

CHRIS Adcock will be aiming to win a men's doubles medal at this year's badminton World Championships – to add to the mixed doubles silver he picked up two years ago.

England have confirmed their squad for the event in Guangzhou, China, this August, and a string of players who are based at the city's National Badminton Centre are set to be in action.

Adcock will lead England's charge after winning silver with Imogen Bankier in 2011.

He will parter Andrew Ellis at the 10,000 seater TianHe Indoor Gymnasium with the pair set to be joined in the event by national champions Chris Langridge and Peter Mills.

Six-time national champ Rajiv Ouseph and new women's winner Sarah Walker will take part in the singles.

Toby Penty is also selected for the men's singles and there will be two pairs in the women's doubles, national champions Lauren Smith and Gabby White and Kate Robertshaw and Heather Olver.

Langridge and Olver will tackle the mixed doubles, along with Adcock and White.

Jens Grill, England and GB Performance Director, admitted that this year's tournament would be a tough ask for the England players after the last worlds were held on home courts in front of a friendly and supportive crowd.

"We know this championships will be far harder than Wembley two years ago when the home crowd played a big part," he said.

"But we will make sure the players have the best possible preparation.

"We will be looking to the experienced members of the squad, like Rajiv and Chris, to help the younger and less experienced members of the squad cope with the pressures of a World Championships, particularly one being played in such a passionate badminton country as China.

"It will be a stern challenge but Chris gave us a big surprise with his unexpected silver medal success two years ago and that is an achievement which can spur on the whole squad."

Lightning let Tvrdek leave

MK LIGHTNING have released Czech forward Kamil Tvrdek – but an air of mystery surrounds their reasoning for doing so.

The front-man signed for the club in November after Adam Calder's season ending injury and was a hit at the Thunderdome, easily slotting into Nick Poole's side.

He will not be retained for next year though despite personal terms being previously agreed for an extended stay.

As such, the decision to allow Tvrdek, pictured, to leave can be seen as a surprise but the club are already negotiating with another imported player to take his place.

A club statement hinted that behind the scenes reasons were the cause of the move.

"The Milton Keynes Lightning can confirm that they will not take up their option to sign Czech forward Kamil Tvrdek for the 2013-14 season," the statement read.

"Kamil signed for MK in November 2012 as cover for the injured Adam Calder, and played for the club for the remainder of the season.

"The club had an option to sign him for 2013-14 and agreed personal terms some time ago; however in the best interests of the team, and for reasons that will remain within the club, the MK Lightning have decided not to pursue their interest in the player.

"The club is, however, in negotiations with another overseas player with a view to signing him; an announcement will be made as and when those negotiations have been successfully concluded."

Meanwhile, Lightning will be holding a fans' forum at 7.30pm tomorrow, at the Campanile Hotel in Fenny Stratford.

Do Blades want to lure Robinson to Sheffield?

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

SHEFFIELD United are the latest club to be heavily linked with a move for Dons manager Karl Robinson.

The 32-year-old has been installed as favourite to fill the vacant managerial position at Bramall Lane with fans again left wondering about the future of their club's boss.

Robinson was as short as 1/2 with some bookmakers to move to the Blades yesterday, who have joined a string of high profile clubs who have been linked with his services.

Dons' League One rivals have been without a permanent manager since Danny Wilson, another man who has been in the stadium:mk hot-seat, was sacked last month.

They were later beaten by Yeovil Town in their play-off semi final and need to find a new man for another unwanted season in the third tier.

Robinson's loyalty to Dons during his time at the club has been strong with the boss turning down the chance to move to Championship suitors Blackpool in January.

But in light of Dons' own failure to gain promotion this season he may be tempted by the interest of a club of undoubted prestige and stature.

However, Robinson was clearly hurt by this year's disappointment and will feel that there is plenty of unfinished business at stadiummk.

He feels a great sense of loyalty to the club which gave him his first opportunity in management and any decision to leave would not be taken lightly.

He has already spoken of his plans for next season – which include changes to backroom staff behind the scenes – and has been busy trying to tie up deals for potential transfer targets.

Robinson has never 100 per cent confirmed his future at the club though, which always leaves a slight element of doubt about what is in store for a man who is regarded as one of the best young tacticians in the country.

After a deeply disappointing 2-1 defeat at Crewe Alexandra caused a massive dent in their hopes for grabbing a play-off spot this term, the boss said that he would be at the club next season, declaring: "I'll be here but some of them [the players] might not be as that wasn't acceptable."

But he later appeared to backtrack on this statement when he said that his remark was simply made out of pure passion.

"I came out with that statement because I believe passionately in the football club, and that's all I can say," Robinson said at the time. "What the future holds, I don't know. I honestly don't know.

"But I do have a three and a half year rolling contract and it's very difficult to break them. It's not like my contract is up and I'm walking away on a free transfer.

"If it's any good to you I am already planning games for the summer."

Robinson turned down Blackpool's approach after discussions with chairman Pete Winkelman, who he met last week to talk about the plans for next season.

Nottingham Forest and Leeds United are among the other clubs who have been linked with a move for him in the past.

Last month he said he would not move to Leeds if asked, speaking of his love for MK Dons and saying he 'hadn't achieved anything yet."
